About i{x} ga

Earning money and paying for the things you want is liberating. But with special financial needs, the road to financial independence can be a tough one. That's why we've created i{x}ga, a program designed specifically for Georgia's Own Credit Union's young adult members. i{x}ga stands for empowerment, and 'x' is the variable; meaning you get to decide how the financial decisions you make right now will help shape your future. i{x}ga lets you connect with other young adults...plus earn some cool stuff along the way. So go ahead, check out i{x}ga, and start navigating your path towards financial success.
